

All telemarketing should be outlawed. I do not want anyone to call me for marketing purposes. If I'm interested in a product or service, I will call the company. I wish there were a national do-not-call list. My name would certainly be on it.